THE PARISH NEWSLETTER
 THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
 SUNDAY 22nd May AD 2016

Welcome to the Parish Church where, after the example of the early church, we celebrate the Eucharist: the "apostles teaching and fellowship, the breaking of bread and the prayers" (Acts 2:42)

The dogma of faith which forms the object of the feast is this: There is one God and in this one God there are three Divine Persons; the Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God. Yet there are not three Gods, but one, eternal, incomprehensible God! The Father is not more God than the Son, neither is the Son more God than the Holy Spirit. The Father is the first Divine Person; the Son is the second Divine Person, begotten from the nature of the Father from eternity; the Holy Spirit is the third Divine Person, proceeding from the Father and the Son. No mortal can fully fathom this sublime truth. But I submit humbly and say: Lord, I believe, help my weak faith.

Why is this feast celebrated at this particular time? It may be interpreted as a finale to all the preceding feasts. All three Persons contributed to and shared in the work of redemption. The Father sent His Son to earth, for "God so loved the world that he gave His only-begotten Son." The Father called us to the faith. The Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ, became man and died for us. He redeemed us and made us children of God. He ever remains the liturgist par excellence to whom we are united in all sacred functions. After Christ's Ascension the Holy Spirit, however, became our Teacher, our Leader, our Guide, our Consoler. On solemn occasions a thanksgiving Te Deum rises spontaneously from Christian hearts.

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity may well be regarded as the Church's Te Deum of gratitude over all the blessings of the Christmas and Easter seasons; for this mystery is a synthesis of Christmas, Epiphany, Easter, Ascension and Pentecost. This feast, which falls on the first Sunday after Pentecost, should make us mindful that actually every Sunday is devoted to the honour of the Most Holy Trinity, that every Sunday is sanctified and consecrated to the triune God. Sunday after Sunday we should recall in a spirit of gratitude the gifts which the Holy Trinity is bestowing upon us. The Father created and predestined us; on the first day of the week He began the work of creation. The Son redeemed us; Sunday is the "Day of the Lord," the day of His resurrection. The Holy Spirit sanctified us, made us His temple; on Sunday the Holy Spirit descended upon the infant Church. Sunday, therefore, is the day of the Most Holy Trinity.

Posters: There are posters on the oak table at the rear of the Nave at St Mary & St Giles for the upcoming Flower Festival and some concerts. Please do take a copy and display prominently if you are able to. There are also flyers available with details of concerts for those who are interested in knowing more and to give to those you know who may be interested.

Flower Festival at St Mary & St Giles to celebrate the HM Queen's 90th Birthday

Thank you to everyone who has already generously donated towards the Festival in June and those who supported the Lunch last week. A significant amount has already been raised. Some Arrangements are being sponsored in memory of a loved one, if you would like to sponsor a specific display please see Sue or Lesley.
Please place any donations in an envelope marked 'Flower Festival'. Many thanks.

'The Year of Mercy' - a Celebration in Oxford Cathedral:

As you will no doubt know, the wider church is celebrating a Year of Mercy. Bishop Jonathan has been talking with the Dean and Chapter of Christ Church Cathedral and they have welcomed the possibility of a celebration to mark the Holy Year on Saturday 17 September. The basic idea will be an opportunity to celebrate the Mass at Christ Church at 11 am followed by a picnic lunch and an early afternoon session of teaching and fellowship.

The Bishop's Office will be sending out more formal announcements and publicity in due course, but hopes that this informal announcement will enable his parishes to make preparatory plans for joining the celebration at ChristChurch Cathedral. This gathering would be a fortnight before the installation of the new Diocesan Bishop, and will give us an opportunity also to pray for him in the cathedral.

I would be most grateful if someone would volunteer to organise a coach for us to travel to Oxford and back. Please see me if you would be willing to take on the organisation of this trip. Thank you. Fr Ross

'The Servant Queen and the King she serves': all 200 of the copies of this marvellous booklet from our initial order have been taken. We can order more, if there is a need.
Please let the Rector know if you would like to order more and how many you would like: either in writing, by 'phone or email. The aim will be to place a further order, if needed, at the end of May.

PARISH NEWS AND NOTICES

Altar Linen: Our Sacristan at St Mary & St Giles, John, asks if there are any among us who would be willing to join the monthly rota for washing and ironing the small altar linen.
It isn't a particularly onerous task and our former Sacristan, Mary Saggars, kindly wrote some notes to help those who join the rota to understand the care that needs taking when rinsing the linen before washing, and some tips for ironing linen. Please see John if you wish to know more.
Also: the purificators do not seem to last as long as they once did. A supplier of good quality Irish Linen has been found as we shall need to purchase more purificators very soon - due to the high number of those we have had to discard due to the deterioration of much of our last supply. The cost per purificator is £14 and we use at least 6 per week - and, of course we need far more than that as the used ones are with the volunteers who wash and iron them, and if this is done fortnightly - as it sometimes is due to holidays and other commitments - then we can easily run short of them. If anyone wishes to donate monies towards this please place your donations in an envelope marked "Small Altar Linen" and place in the collection baskets. Don't forget that, if you are a tax payer, you can increase the value of your gift by using a Gift Aid Envelope and completing the details. Thank you.
